

Science in the classroom

Year 4 would like to invite their families into school on Tuesday 6th February @ 2pm. Entry via main entrance

We'd love to share some of the things we've been doing in our Science lessons this year with you and also allow you to take part in some Science activities with your child.

*only one adult per child please due to limited space within the classroom

Science in the classroom

Year 4 would like to invite their families into school on

Tuesday 6th February @ 2pm. Entry via main entrance

We'd love to share some of the things we've been doing in our Science lessons this year with you and also allow you to take part in some Science activities with your child.

*only one adult per child please due to limited space within the classroom